Arne Nielsson

Professional Speaker and Coach

Arne is a ten-time world champion and former olympic silver medalist in canoeing. Since 1996, he has been working as a Professional Speaker and Coach – primarily for business- and sport associates. Furthermore, he is a writer for multiple bestsellers.

play your talent

WHAT YOU WORK ON, YOU IMPROVE AT

Arne focuses on coaching your mindset and showing you, how to draw parallels between the world of sports and your own everyday life. By doing so, you can see the value of consistent training, which ultimately will give you better results. The thesis is: “What you work on, you improve at – work on that, which gives you the life you want"

COACHING

Arne is a highly sought out Coach and has been coaching different people from the top Danish business- and sports community.
Arne Nielsson was the smallest canoeist who, despite the world’s lack of faith in his ability to succeed, defied several negative prejudices and became the most successful canoeist with 10 x world championships, 74 x Danish championships and 1 Olympic medal in his bag – an example and prove of, how our attitudes towards ourselves and those around us, define our results.

SPEAKER

Arne Nielsson has three times won “Speaker of the Year” and has performed several speaking for more than 30 years for more than 500.000 people. He speaks about subjects as ”The will to victory”, ”How to keep each other successful in a stressful everyday life”, ”How to create a winning culture, despite differing personalities within companies”, and ”How to improve, despite crisis and adversity”.

”

”What you work on, you improve at – work on that, which gives you the life you want”

You can read much more at:
www.arnenielsson.com